Transfer EDGE

Summer Sessions

Transfer Edge is a 6-week, 6-unit program with an optional residential component offered during Summer Session II. The program is designed to introduce new transfer students to the academic rigor of the university, and the myriad academic and community supports available on the UC Davis campus.

Core components of the Transfer Edge program include

Workshops and social activities to develop network and connect to campus resources

4-unit* Math course and 2-unit First Year Seminar guaranteed

Online learning tools, individual tutoring, and 24-hour access to math content videos

Optional on-campus residential living to ease into campus life and build network

Applications Available May 1st | Due June 1st

* 3 or 4 units depending on track (A or B) selected
