SUMMER SESSION 2

Ethics in Biotechnology

BIT 171

Aug 01 - Sep 09

MWF 10:00a.m–11:40a.m. | Instructor: Alexandra Tobler

Real and hypothetical case studies to illustrate ethical issues in genomics and biotechnology. Training and practice in difficult ethical situations and evaluating personal and social consequences.

GE: Science & Engineering, Scientific Literacy, Writing Experience.
Prerequisites: Upper division standing in a natural science major.
Please contact atobler@ucdavis.edu for more information.