The philosophical writings of René Descartes (Meditations and Principles of Philosophy). Topics include: the refutation of skepticism; the nature and existence of mind and body; the existence of God; and the foundations of science.

Course Description: